Torch Bearer Ch. Devi Lal

Ch. Devi Lal, a veteran freedom fighter, a rebel against the British Raj, a symbol of patience and fortitude, was a man of action, be it in freedom movement, post-independence politics or for the amelioration of the plight of the suffering peasantry. Never compromising with quality of life and standards, Ch. Devi Lal stood by his convictions. He was looked upon not only with love and affection during his younger days, but also with reverential awe in his later life, when he was popularly nicknamed 'Tau'. His multifaceted personality exacted admiration. It is not easy to describe the like of him – a legend and institution by himself – adequately in words.

About Ch. Devi Lal, one can recall Shakespeare's lines:

His life was gentle and the elements
So mix'd in him that Nature might stand up
And say to all the world, this was a man!

The legendary leader Ch. Devi Lal is often remembered by all those who came into his contact. People often sit and talk about him and of his affable nature, his sparkling laughter, his outspokenness and about his sense of sincerity and commitment. Millions cherish his memory with love, fondness and reverence. He will continue to inspire generations.

Tryst with Education

Mr. Arjun Singh Chautala Chairman of JCD Vidyapeeth, is a man of vision and aware of social concerns. Being a son of the soil, he felt an urgent need of an institute which may impart professional education and develop the youth of this region with an edge of international standards. The establishment of JCD Vidyapeeth emerged in the memory of his legendary grandfather Chaudhary Devi Lal, Former Deputy Prime Minister of India. He felt the process of globalization is offering opportunities as well as throwing challenges the world is shrinking to a borderless global village. The trade and commerce has no territorial limitations, professionals have no barriers for exchange of knowledge, opportunities are immense and competition is cutting throat. In this scenario, the emergence of Institution like JCD Vidyapeeth is the need of the hour. Mr. Arjun Singh Chautala has translated the ideals of Jan Nayak Chaudhary Devi Lal into action.
